Class 20 Leaders tour Elliott Museum on History/Culture Day. It was a day to learn about our county history, art, culture and perform at the Barn Theatre. Thanks to our alumni coordinators, Robin Hicks-Connors, Nicki van Vonno, Melissa Corbett, Francine Beckstead and our many speakers and the organizations who hosted the day.

Thirty-five golfers participated at YPMC's first golf tournament and BBQ hosted by Monarch Country Club, Inc. on October 15th. Thank you to tournament hole sponsors Deakins Carroll Insurance, Donovan Enterprises, Ralicki Wealth Management and Riverside National Bank.

President's Report

Joe Catrambone
 President/CEO

Last month the U.S. Chamber kicked off a campaign dedicated to remind the world of the Free Enterprise System and how it made America a dominant force in the world. The chamber believes the "America Free Enterprise, Dream Big" campaign is one of the most important and necessary initiatives in its nearly 100-year history. As a nation, we face major policy challenges--but none greater or more important than reviving the economy, restoring the 7 million jobs lost to the current recession, and creating the 13 million more jobs that will be needed over the next decade. A recent survey by the U.S. Chamber found that while people support free enterprise, they don't see how it benefits them as individuals. Respondents also expressed concern
